

Pre-filing Credit Counseling & Pre-discharge Education

Always available online

-or-

Available 7 days a week by phone

We're here to make this easy.

BEFORE you file for bankruptcy:

You must complete a pre-filing counseling session.

- You can go online where you will be asked to enter information about your monthly income and payments and then chat with a counselor.
- Or, you can call us and talk to one of our counselors for a slightly longer session. No appointment is necessary.

AFTER you file for bankruptcy:

You must complete an approved education course.

- You can go online and complete an interactive course that does not require a follow up phone call.
- Or, you may choose to read a self-study book. This option requires a follow up phone call.
